

Test Ideals and Singularities.

Moty Katzman (Sheffield)

This talk describes various measures of "badness" of singularities of commutative rings of prime characteristic. The first part of the talk describes the development of tight-closure as a tool to measure singularities. The second part of the talk deals with certain numerical invariants of rings of prime characteristic, namely F -jumping coefficients, and their properties.