

Record of the location of aerial bombs on the City of Manchester

Red circle: fire bomb
Blue circle: high explosive bomb
Green: line mine
Solid red shading: demolished building
Hatched red shading: partially damaged structure

Original maps were created by City Architects Department and are now held by Manchester Archives (ref GB127.MISC/1192).
Email: archiveslocalstudies@manchester.gov.uk

This image is an artificially produced version showing the whole city centre stitching together sheets [ids Lancashire CIV 6, 7, 10, 11].
It was created by Graham Bowden and Martin Dodge, Department of Geography, University of Manchester.