Let \( g \) be a complex semisimple Lie algebra and \( e \) its nilpotent element. To this data one assigns a certain finitely generated associative algebra, called a W-algebra (of finite type). In the talk we are going to describe our recent results on W-algebras. Our approach is based on deformation quantization of a certain Hamiltonian action.