

Support for you at The University of Manchester

Your Academic Advisor

Your Academic Advisor

Cesare Giulio Ardito

Teaching Fellow, Pure mathematician

cesaregiulio.ardito@manchester.ac.uk

Office hours: Tuesday 11:30-12:30

Zoom: <https://zoom.us/j/99930501924>

Thursday 11:30-12:30

Room...?? (TBA)

or by appointment.

What does an Academic Advisor do?

- Supports your wellbeing
- Signposting to services

Wellbeing

Signposting to Services

- Societies
- Students' Union
- Volunteer Hub
- Counselling Service
- Disability Advisory & Support Service

What can I discuss with my advisor?

- Issues affecting your studies
- Further advice from Student Support & Guidance Team

Personal
Issues

What can I discuss with my advisor?

- Assessment results and feedback
- Additional academic support from Library or University Language Centre

Assessment

What can I discuss with my advisor?

- Professional development / career goals
- University Careers Service
- Academic references

Careers

Meeting your Academic Advisor

First year:

- Timetable on 'My Manchester'
- One to one meeting each semester
- More meetings if needed

Meeting your Academic Advisor

Second / final year:

- One to one meeting at least once a semester
- Email support
- More meetings if needed

Your Academic Advisor is there for YOU to support your personal and professional development throughout your studies...

*Discussing
assessment
results*

Helping you understand feedback

*Academic
references*

Talking about any issues affecting you

Advice to help you make academic choices

Helping you find support

*Discussing
your career
goals*

You can find the name of your Academic Advisor by logging into the Student System. Click on Student Centre and their name is under the Advisor heading. You can email them by clicking on their name.